

List of IPMEN Delegates

Alida Ortiz: Caribbean Fisheries Management Council, USA
Allan Youlton, Fundación Mar de Chile, Chile
Carla Christie: CIEN Austral, Chile
Diana Martino: Caribbean Fisheries Management Council, USA
Harry Breidahl: Nautilus Educational, Australia
José Barraza: Marine Conservation Center, PUC, Chile
Judith Connor: Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute, USA
Judy Lemus: Hawai'i Institute of Marine Biology, USA
Laura Nuñez (student) Ánimo Leadership Charter High School, USA
Luis Pinto: COPAS Sur-Austral, UdeC, Chile
Manuela Pérez Aragón: University of Concepción, Chile
Mark Friedman: Ánimo Leadership Charter High School, USA
Monique Myers: California Sea Grant Extension, USA
Nachiro Uchida: Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology, Japan
Natalie Davey: Saltwater Projects, Australia
Nemani Drova: Acting Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Education, Fiji
Peter Tuddenham: College of Exploration, USA
Sylvia Spalding: Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council, USA
Tina Bishop: College of Exploration, USA
Tsuyoshi Sasaki: Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology, Japan

List of IPMEN Guests

Angel Lemus, USA
Aurora Davey, Australia
Carol Harper, USA
Jane Breidahl, Australia
Kristian Kvilekval, USA
Lukas Kvilekval, USA
Mike Vassar, USA

INSTITUCIONES

Organización General

Sponsor Internacional

Sponsor Nacional

In-kind

Co-chairs International IPMEN'12 Committee

Dr. Luis Antonio Pinto
Mr. Harry Briedhal

ipmenchile.net

IPMEN'12 Chile

“Un gran océano, muchos sueños”
“Once big ocean, many dreams”

La Red Internacional de Educadores Marino del Pacífico (IPMEN) celebra su cuarta congreso bienal, el primero en Latinoamérica a partir del lunes 26 de noviembre hasta el 3 de diciembre de 2012. Educadores marinos se reúnen para compartir recursos y avanzar en una red destinada a garantizar la sostenibilidad del Pacífico y las comunidades que dependen de ella.

The International Pacific Marine Educators Network (IPMEN) holds its fourth biennial Conference November 2012 in Chile. Marine educators are gathering to share resources and to advance a network aimed at ensuring the sustainability of the Pacific and the communities who depend upon it.

FORO – CONGRESO – TALLER – SEMINARIO – SESIÓN DE TERRENO - COMUNIDAD

IPMEN Forum on Marine Education

Monday, 26 November 2012

Salón O'Higgins, Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores

Sponsored by The Chile-California Program and DECYTI,
Ministry of Foreign Affairs

9:00 a.m. Registration Ministry of Foreign Affairs

9:30 a.m. Inauguration of IPMEN 2012 Conference

- Dr. Luis Pinto, Chair, IPMEN 2012 Conference
- Professor Harry Briedahl, Spokesperson, IPMEN International Committee

9:45 a.m. Welcoming Remarks

- Ambassador Gabriel Rodriguez, Director Energy, Science & Technology and Innovation, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Chile Government Representative

10:05 a.m. Key Note

- Marine Education in Chile: "Eppur si muove", Dr. Juan Carlos Castilla, recipient of the Chile National Applied Science Award 2010

10:50 a.m. Forum on Marine Education

- Dr. Juan Carlos Castilla, Pontifical Catholic University of Chile
- Nemani Drova, Fiji, Ministry of Education
- Peter Tuddenham, USA, College of Exploration and National Marine Educators Association
- Dr. Judith Connor, USA, Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute

12:15 p.m. Cultural welcoming

IPMEN Conference

Tuesday Sessions, 27 November 2012

Salón Arrayán, Hotel Nogales and Convention Center

8:30 AM Welcoming

8:40-8:55

"Deep Sea Biodiversity" (Strand 1 Biodiversity in the marine environment)

JUDITH CONNOR, PhD

Director of Information and Technology Dissemination
Monterey Bay Aquarium Research Institute

9:00-9:15

"How to enhance the value of ocean after 3.11 Tsunami devastation in Japan" (Strand 3-Community response to natural disasters)

TSUYOSHI SASAKI

Tokyo University of Marine Science and Technology

9:20- 9:35

"First Stewards: Coastal Peoples Address Climate Change" (Strand 3-Community response to natural disasters)

SYLVIA SPALDING

Communications Officer for the Western Pacific Regional Fishery Management Council; vice chair National Marine Education Association's Traditional Knowledge Committee

9:40-9:55

"Coastal marine education for low-income multicultural students in Ventura, California: working toward social-ecological resilience" (Strand 4 Local practices in education)

MONIQUE MYERS

California Sea Grant

10:00-10:30

Small group discussions led by presenter of each presentation topic.

10:45-11:00 BREAK

11:00- 11:15

"Experiencia en la enseñanza marítima a los jóvenes en Chile" (Strand 4 Local practices in education)

ALLAN YOULTON

Fundación "Mar de Chile"

11:20- 11:35

"¿Cuánto sabemos los chilenos de nuestro propio delfín?" (Strand 1 Biodiversity in the marine environment)

CARLA CHRISTIE

CIEN Austral

11:40- 11:55

"IPMEN looking back and moving forward" (Strand 4 Local practices in education)

HARRY BREIDAHL

Nautilus Educational

12:00-12:15

"Global online social networks to support local marine education practices and challenges." (Strand 4 Local practices in education)

PETER TUDDENHAM

College of Exploration

12:20- 12:50 Small group discussions led by presenter of each presentation topic

1:00-2:30 LUNCH

2:30 OPEN SPACE MEETING

Description: This will offer delegates an opportunity to initiate and carry on discussions of interest. We would invite participants to share ideas for themes and future directions, any new ideas, needs, or concerns relevant for IPMEN and they can include other topics of interest to them and their involvement in the IPMEN network.